

GNO© CERTIFIED PROVIDER TRAINING

GIRLS NIGHT OUT!

We all have things to work on!

Training Activities

- Small group-based instruction, including live in-session practice facilitating activities
- Attend a GNO©-Teen skills group session in our community
- Set goals and begin plans to conduct a GNO© group in your community

Attendees will Receive:

- GNO© program manual and training handbook
- Access to all supplemental modules and materials to recruit and train facilitators at your site
- Phone consultation with our team to implement pilot GNO© group at your site
- Certification to disseminate GNO© program (following training requirements)

CONNECTION CONFIDENCE COMMUNITY

April 26-28, 2023

OR

June 28-30, 2023

University of Kansas Medical Center

Course fee - $1800

Limited spaces available

Ready to Sign up?

Complete the online training application under the "Certified Provider Training" tab on our webpage or scan the QR code below. You will receive a confirmation email and additional details regarding registration.

For questions, please contact Nicole Crump, Administrative Assistant or Mallorely Beckloff at mbeckloff@kumc.edu.

✉ nikki05@kumc.edu  @kumcgno

 @gno_kumc  www.kumc.edu/gno

Training led by Program Directors, Rene Jamison, PhD, Jessica Schuttler, PhD & Mallorely Beckloff, LMSW
Center for Child Health and Development
University of Kansas Medical Center – Pediatrics